On behalf of the NFL, you are invited to attend this meeting where we will explain the job positions we would like to fill for our Frequency Coordination Super Bowl Operation.

Anyone that has an interest is welcome to attend, there will not be an obligation to accept a position by coming to this meeting. In addition, you will not be obligated to make a decision to accept or reject a crew position at this time

What would be appreciated would be notice that you will or will not attend so that our room set up and food preparation can be made appropriately. Arrangements are being made for courtesy parking, details to follow.

Thank you for your RSVP either by email or phone as listed below:
